Welcome Message

Welcome Address by President PB AOMSI

On behalf of the organising committee of the 11th Annual Conference of Pb AOMSI, I warmly welcome all delegates, postgraduates, faculty, and esteemed speakers from Punjab and across the country to the vibrant city of Ludhiana on the 25th and 26th of October 2025.

Known as the Manchester of North India, Ludhiana is Punjab's largest city, celebrated for its rich cultural heritage, entrepreneurial spirit, and historical significance. Nestled on the banks of the Sutlej River, it blends tradition with modernity—home to historic Gurudwaras, forts, and a proud legacy in India's freedom struggle, while also being a hub of cycle and hosiery industry, education, and innovation.

Our theme, "Precision, Innovation & Compassion in Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery," reflects the evolving frontiers of our specialty. The conference promises an engaging scientific programme with interactive sessions, hands-on workshops, and knowledge sharing among the best minds of our fraternity.

We look forward to welcoming you to Ludhiana and hope that the academic enrichment, along with the city's warmth and hospitality, will make this event a truly memorable experience.

Warm regards,
Dr. Inderjot Singh
