

CRANIO - MAXILLOFACIAL SURGERY

CMFS unit at Amrita Institute of Medical Sciences was established in 2001 and associates closely with Head & Neck Surgery, Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery.

The unit encompasses a state of the art 3D-VR Lab with Dolphin, Materialise software's and 3D Printing facility, for planning and executing complex craniofacial reconstructive procedures.

Faculty

Dr. Pramod Subash
Dr. Maria Kuriakose (Orthodontist)
Dr. Arjun Krishnadas
Dr. Ambuj Agarwal

Spectrum of Care

Craniofacial deformity correction (Orthognathic Surgery/ Distractions), Cleft lip and Palate surgery (NAM to Rhinoplasty), Craniofacial Surgery (Craniosynostosis / craniofacial syndromes), Craniofacial Trauma (Endoscope assisted surgery), TMJ Disorders (TMJ Arthroscopy to Alloplastic TJR), Head and Neck pathology and reconstruction (Benign pathologies, Planning and assisting Reconstruction as well as Rehabilitation)

An Average of 400 – 500 surgeries are performed every year.